Dear Qingling Shi,

I am very pleased to confirm our various conversations and correspondence and invite you to be an Academic Visiting Scholar at our University, commencing January 2020 for a period of 6 months to July 2020. This is for the purpose of your own professional development and research. During this period, you will be responsible to myself and other designated professional senior research colleagues from the Department of English in the University. Your working language will be English.

It is our understanding that during this period you will receive salary paid by Dezhou University and provide your own funding to cover all the expenses of your stay, including full medical insurance and accommodation for yourself.

The University of Chester will charge £1,200 as a bench fee for this visit. The University during the period will endeavour to make available to you access to computer facilities which may be shared. We will assist you in applying for the University's accommodation for the duration of your stay if required.
